JAZZ UNDER THE STARS

The Dallas Museum of Art announces a sizzling new lineup for the 27th annual series of free outdoor concerts – Chase Presents Jazz Under the Stars. The 2010 series hosts a diverse schedule of performances from Latin jazz fusion and percussionists to mainstream jazz. The free outdoor concerts begin Thursday, May 20, continuing on consecutive Thursdays through June 24, on the Museum's Ross Avenue Plaza. Bring a picnic and blanket or purchase food and beverages on-site before the music starts at 8 p.m. This year's schedule includes:

May 20: Danilo Pérez

Kick off the 2010 season of Jazz Under the Stars with Danilo Pérez. Known for his distinctive blend of Pan-American jazz, Grammy Award-winner Danilo Pérez is among the most influential and dynamic musicians of our time.

May 27: Margo Reymundo

Margo Reymundo blends Latin jazz and R&B and has shared the stage with such jazz greats as Roy Hargrove, James Clay, Earl Harvin, and Shelly Carroll.

June 3: The Stockton Helbing Quintet

Drummer, composer, and producer Stockton Helbing performs modern jazz with his quintet.

June 10: The Shelley Carroll-Brad Leali Big Band featuring Sandra Kaye

Two saxophone legends, Shelley Carroll and Brad Leali, along with one of Dallas's premier jazz divas, Sandra Kaye, lead this big band for a performance of classic and original compositions.

June 17: Clint Strong

Clint Strong is considered by many to be one of the best of a new generation of jazz guitarists. He has performed and recorded with Merle Haggard, Willie Nelson, and Red Garland and fellow guitarists Howard Roberts and Herb Ellis.

June 24: Mario Cruz

Tenor saxophonist and Texas native Mario Cruz has a unique and eclectic style. He has toured with the likes of Bruce Springsteen, Dave Edmunds, Natalie Cole, and blues artist Willie Deville.

In addition to the annual six-week outdoor jazz series, the Dallas Museum of Art presents even more live sounds with Jazz in the Atrium, featuring some of Dallas's most talented musicians, every Thursday from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the Hamon Atrium. Visitors are welcome to enjoy the Museum until 9 p.m. on Thursday evenings with general admission fees of $10 and under.
